

Working Abroad – Norway

My Profile...

- Name: Katrina Roso
- Position: Project Engineer at DOF Subsea
- History within DOF: Started as a Graduate Engineer in March 2011

On my way...

On my way...

My Personal Experience...Arrival

My Personal Experience...Office Life

My Personal Experience...Site Visits

DOF Subsea Norway

Project – Tordis Flexible Jumper Replacement
Client – Statoil

Scope of Work:

- Disconnection, cutting, plugging, and removal of 8-off 5" flexibles and 2 off umbilicals
- Installation and tie-in of 8-off new 6" flexibles and 2-off umbilicals

My role within the Project:

- Mobilisation Procedures for two DOF vessels (Skandi Skolten & Skandi Bergen)
- Rock removal (dredging) scope

My Personal Experience...Offshore

My Personal Experience...After Work

50 NOK
~$8.50

Travel within Norway...

Travel within Europe...

Other Experiences...

Summary

- Working in the subsea industry allows you to travel abroad and enables you to develop professionally and personally through experiencing a different culture and lifestyle
- Enhances communication skills, specifically where mixed cultures work as one

Thank you!

