

Young Engineers & Scientists (YES!): Spreading your Wings

The Melbourne Hotel
5.30 pm – 8.00 pm
Thursday, 25 September 2014

DRINKS
& SNACKS
INCLUDED

Chaired by: Matt Blumberg, Senior Engineer, 2H Offshore

Every young subsea engineer has a different journey, each knowing and understanding what they do. The three presenters will give an insight into some different, possibly extraordinary, things which they have done in their workplace – here and overseas.

We will be hearing from a Woodside Operator, a GE Oil & Gas Subsea Engineer (products) and a DOF Installation Engineer (vessels). The diverse range of experiences you will hear from the presenters will be able to provide you with a better understanding of what young industry is up to in the oil and gas space.

Programme:

5.30 pm: Registration and drinks

6.00 pm: Presentations:

- “Working abroad in Norway” Katrina Roso, DOF Subsea
- “Testing, Testing, Testing – The role of a Subsea Tree Installation Engineer” Dan Smith, Woodside Energy
- “Turbo Application Engineering” John Bills, GE Oil & Gas

7.00 pm: Networking with drinks and snacks

8.00 pm: Event close
